Carrier's liability must be proven before any settlement will be paid.

6. LIABILITY LIMITATION FOR LOSS OF LIFE OR BODILY INJURY

The liability for the death of or personal injury to a passenger shall in no case exceed 250,000 units of account per passenger on each distinct occasion.

Carrier shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever if the incident (a) resulted from an act of war, hostilities, civil war, insurrection or a natural phenomenon of an exceptional, inevitable and irresistible character; or (b) was wholly caused by an act or omission done with the intent to cause the incident by a third party.

If and to the extent that the loss exceeds the above limit, the Carrier shall be further liable unless the carrier proves that the incident which caused the loss occurred without the fault or neglect of the Carrier. The liability of the Carrier for the death of or personal injury to a passenger shall however in no case exceed 400,000 units of account per passenger on each distinct occasion.

For the loss suffered as a result of the death of or personal injury to a passenger not caused by a Shipping Incident, the Carrier shall be liable if the incident which caused the loss was due to the fault or neglect of the Carrier. The liability of the Carrier under this Contract only relates to loss arising from incidents that occurred in the course of the Cruise. The burden of proving that the incident which caused the loss occurred in the course of the Cruise, and the extent of the loss, shall lie with the claimant.

7. CARRIER'S LIABILITY / TIME LIMITS FOR PROPERTY DAMAGE AND PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS

The extent of the Carrier's liability is limited in certain circumstances, as laid out in the Conventions, Regulation 1177/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010 concerning the rights of passengers when travelling by sea and inland waterway (hereinafter "the Passenger Rights Regulation") and Regulation (EC) No 392/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 April 2009 on the liability of carriers of passengers by sea in the event of accidents (hereinafter "the Liability of Carriers Regulation"). This will limit the Carrier's liability for death, personal injury, and loss of or damage to luggage in most cases, as well as making special provisions for valuable items.

The Carrier is not liable for any losses, damages or expenses or for consequential losses, however arising, except as specified in these Terms and Conditions or as provided for in the Conventions, the Passenger Rights Regulations and the Liability of Carriers Regulations.

Carrier shall be liable only in accordance with the provisions and limitations as contained in the laws of Malta incorporating the Athens Convention and the LLMC Convention where applicable.

Any action for damages arising out of personal injury, death, or lost or damaged luggage shall be time-barred after a period of two (2) years or as otherwise set out in the Athens Convention. The limitation period shall be calculated as follows (i) in the case of personal injury, from the date of disembarkation of Passenger; (ii) in the case of death, from the date when Passenger should have disembarked or the date of death, whichever is later; (iii) in the case of lost or damaged luggage, from the date of disembarkation or from the date when disembarkation should have taken place, whichever is later.

Where any of the Conventions or applicable rules permit Carrier to apply a deductible, Carrier may apply that deductible.

Certain third parties derive rights and exemptions from liability as a result of the terms and conditions stated herein. All of Carrier's rights, exemptions from liability, defences and immunities under this Contract (including, but not limited to, those arising under this section 7 or applicable law) inure to the benefit of Carrier's employees and agents, together with the Vessel and the Vessel's tenders, operators, managers, charterers, officers, staff, crewmembers, shipbuilders and manufacturers of all component parts. These third parties will have no liability to Passenger, either in contract or in tort, which is greater than or different from Carrier's liability.

If a written claim is not made and suit is not commenced within the time provided in this section 7, then Passenger claims will be extinct, and Passenger waives and releases any right she/he may have to make a claim against Carrier or Vessel for any such damage, bodily injury, emotional distress or injury or death or loss.

Carrier and Vessel shall have the right at all times to avail themselves and have the benefit of the rights of limitation available under the Conventions and any and all applicable global limitation of liability or exoneration of liability rules, regulations or statutes, including but not limited to those contained in the Conventions as may be amended from time to time and applicable as if fully set out herein and by those other further limitations of liability set forth in the laws of Malta.

A copy of the Athens convention and the LLMC convention will be provided by Carrier upon written request.

8. ITINERARY / RIGHT TO CHANGE / DETENTION

Carrier will make every reasonable effort to undertake the advertised and any other agreed and offered Cruise, but no Cruise is guaranteed and Cruises may be altered, delayed, amended, or cancelled subject to circumstances. If the performance of the proposed Cruise is hindered or prevented (or in the opinion of Carrier is likely to be hindered or prevented by war whether declared or not), hostilities, terrorist action or threat thereof, blockade, weather or sea conditions, high or low water levels, ice, labour conflicts, breakdown of the Vessel, congestion, lock operational malfunction, docking difficulties or any other cause whatsoever or if Carrier considers that for any reason whatsoever, proceeding to, attempting to enter, or entering or remaining at the place of disembarkation may expose the Vessel to risk of loss or damage or to be likely to delay her, Passenger and his or her property may be landed at the place of embarkation or at any place which Carrier or the Captain of the Vessel in his or her discretion may reasonably decide upon, at which place the responsibility of Carrier shall cease and this Contract shall be deemed to have been fully performed, or if Passenger has not embarked, Carrier may cancel the proposed Cruise and may refund Passenger money or fares paid in advance.

Carrier reserves the right at its sole option and discretion, without any liability for damages or refund, of any kind to deviate from the Vessel's advertised or ordinary itinerary or route, to delay, advance or lengthen any Cruise, to omit or change ports of call, to arrange for substantially equivalent transportation by another vessel and/or by other means of transportation, including without limitation by coach or other land transportation alternatives, whether belonging to the Carrier or not, and to cause Passenger to disembark from the Vessel temporarily or permanently. Carrier may for any reason whatsoever cancel any Cruise or terminate the Contract at any time before departure of the Vessel, and in such event, Carrier's only liability will be to refund to Passenger the amount that Carrier has received for the Contract provided, however, the termination was not caused by, or in any way attributable to any breach by the Passenger of any of the terms and conditions herein or any act, neglect or default on his part. For the purposes of assisting other Vessels or protecting life or property, the Captain of the Vessel has the right, at his or her sole discretion, to deviate from the Vessel's advertised or ordinary itinerary or route, to delay, advance or cancel any Cruise, to omit or change any ports of call, to tow or to be towed, to transfer Passenger and Passenger's baggage to any other vessel and/or other means of transportation whether belonging to Carrier or not, cause Passenger to disembark the Vessel temporarily or permanently, and Passenger shall have no claims against Carrier in such circumstances.

The Carrier will inform the Passenger of any cancellation or delay in departure for any other reason as soon as possible and in no case later than 30 minutes after the scheduled time of departure, and of the estimated time of departure and estimated time of arrival as soon as that information is available to the Carrier. If the Passenger is a disabled person or a person with reduced mobility, that Passenger will receive such information in an accessible format.

Where the Carrier reasonably expects the departure of the Cruise to be cancelled or delayed by more than 90 minutes and such cancellation, delay or rescheduling is not due to weather conditions or force majeure, the Passenger will be entitled to snacks, meals, or refreshments free of charge and in reasonable relation to the waiting time. Furthermore, in such circumstances, where such cancellation or delay in departure entails the stay of one or more nights or a stay additional to that intended by the Passenger becomes necessary, where and when physically possible, the Carrier will offer the Passenger adequate accommodation on board or ashore and transport to and from the port terminal and place of accommodation in addition to snacks, meals, or refreshments free of charge. The total cost of accommodation ashore shall be limited to €80 per night for a maximum of 3 nights.

If Passenger is refused passage or leaves the Vessel prior to the end of the Cruise for any of the reasons described in this section or for other reasons including, but not limited to, personal, medical, or business reasons, Carrier will not be required to refund any portion of the Contract price, or be responsible for any of Passenger's cost or the costs and expenses of any other person travelling with Passenger. Passenger hereby consents to a reasonable search being made of Passenger's person, baggage or other property, such search to be carried out in the presence of the Passenger and if that is not possible in the presence of two persons not employed or otherwise contracted by Carrier in the performance of its duties and to the removal and confiscation or destruction of any object which may, in the opinion of Carrier, impair the safety of the Vessel or inconvenience other Passengers.
